                                  ss.
THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT )

Darryl L. Jones, being duly sworn, deposes and states as follows:

1. I have recently been in telephonic touch with defendant Jose F. Boehm's new counsel, Brett A. Greenfield, whose is substituting for counsel David Kenner.
2. This call was for the purpose of settlement discussion and to arrange a trip to California for that purpose.

3. During the course of the call Mr. Greefield indicated to me that even if a judgment was secured against Mr. Boehm, collecting on the judgment could prove a problem.
4. This statement gives rise to the concern that Mr. Boehm assets, which are substantial, may be being fraudulently transferred or hidden.
